- If you leave the program once you are in Spain, there will be no refund (program cost nor lodging fee).
- You need to have or obtain a passport and any other required travel documents. This is your (or your legal guardian's) sole responsibility. If you are not a citizen of the United States or Canada, it is your (or your legal guardian's) responsibility to obtain all visas and documents that may be required in order for you to enter Spain and participate in the program. You understand that an inability for you to obtain a visa or other necessary documents does not constitute grounds for withdrawal from the program with a refund.
- You are responsible for exercising caution and common sense at all times in order to avoid damages and injuries. The school cannot provide supervision during periods of independent activity.
- The school provides insurance coverage while in the program, including limited health, accident and accidental death. You understand that your participation will be terminated if you are expelled from the school or disciplined by civil authorities. Also, termination may occur at the school's discretion if it is determined that your conduct is incompatible with the interest, harmony or welfare of the rest of the students. You (and your legal guardian) agree to indemnify the school if you do anything that causes the school to sustain financial loss or liability.
- If you become ill or incapacitated, the school may take such actions as it considers necessary under the circumstances, including securing medical treatment for you and transporting you to the United States or Canada. You release Eduespaña, the school and the Education Office from any liability relating to this medical care. You also authorize Eduespaña and the school to take whatever action it deems to be necessary and in your best interest (including transportation out of Spain back to the United States or Canada at your own or your legal guardian's expense) in the event of political unrest or any other unforeseen condition. If the school incurs any expenses on your behalf that is not covered by insurance you (and your legal guardian) agree to repay this expense immediately upon your return.

3. You unconditionally release ...
